

CV JORIS SLUIZER ENGELS

Joris Sluizer was born on 25-2-1961. After his high school he travelled around the world in Europe, the US, Brazil, Mexico, Egypt and Algeria. After he start his own company Fish and See Productions and realizes his first 52 min documentary PASSION IN PROGRESS. Interested as well in theatre as cinema he creates in 1986 the association Rose des Sables with the writer Yugurhta Hamour. They develop various multicultural and multi disciplinary projects working on the mix between film and theatre. After this period he worked many years as art director on long feature films. In 1990 he was asked to come and work for Canal Plus as decorator responsable for the creation of all accessories and the Special effect for les Guingnols de l'Info.

In 2004 he decides to move to the South of France and starts a new enterprise in 2006 in hiking with and renting quads called Quadrome Evasion. Since September 2012 Quadrome extended their activities with offering adventurous tippy and lodging weekends with possibility of breakfast and dinners.